

Bullying reporting procedures

Including incidents of sectarian, racist and homophobic bullying

Report any worries about bullying to an adult in the school

The adult will investigate by speaking to the children involved

If bullying is happening or a sectarian, racist or homophobic comment has been made the adult will report to SMT

SMT will investigate, apply sanctions, inform parents and record on pastoral notes

Racist incidents will be logged on SEEMIS

Support will be provided to all children involved and the situation will be monitored
